Worldclass, Worldwide Leadership

Real-world experience gives us the edge.

Today's world presents an unprecedented array of complex security challenges. Undoubtedly, there is an urgent need for those in leadership positions to understand, plan, and respond to threats of political and economic terrorism. National Public Safety Strategy Group is uniquely qualified to provide leaders in both the public and private sector with the tools to make effective, proactive decisions regarding security at all levels of an organization.

Public and Private Sector Homeland Security Services

Counter-terrorism has become one of the nation's top priorities. Our world has changed, and much of our vital infrastructures — as well as all government and business facilities — are vulnerable to sudden acts of violence. Those in leadership positions cannot afford to neglect issues relating to public safety and security.

With our experience, unique access and insight, National Public Safety Strategy Group (NPSSG) is able to provide a full range of security services for government, NGO and business decision makers. Our unparalleled track record of achievement working within the counter-terrorism, political and law enforcement communities gives us a critical edge when working with clients to reduce uncertainty. Our specialized services include:

- ▶ Complex investigations
- ▶ Strategic threat analysis
- ▶ Threat and vulnerability assessments
- ▶ Private sector homeland security procurement consultation
- ▶ Evaluation of existing security infrastructure and homeland security operations
- ▶ Campus security strategies

Innovative Solutions for Multi-National Corporations and Non-Government Organizations

While the globalization of business and the ascendance of technology have brought about unparalleled opportunities for economic growth, they have also made organizations vulnerable to threatening forces and acts of competitive intelligence. The need for securing personal, physical, intellectual and financial assets has never been as critical as it is today.

Through our world-class global intelligence and law enforcement resources and networks, NPSSG can provide organizations with robust security service platforms. Regardless of the size or scope of the security issue, NPSSG can ensure the delivery of dynamic solutions that will meet your organization's needs. Our approach is strategic and client-focused, integrating innovative solutions for multi-nationals, including:

- ▶ Investigations within multiple industries into misappropriation of funds, conflicts of interest, corruption, fraud, and the credentials of key executives

An Exceptional Team of Career Intelligence, Law Enforcement and Private Sector Professionals

- ▶ Examination of political and economic trends which may foster instability and terrorism
- ▶ Evaluation of existing organizational intelligence capabilities
- ▶ Development, training and implementation of security services for government and private sector enterprise
- ▶ Customized security solutions and consultation

Training and Assessment Services

National Public Safety Learning Center (NPSLC)

The National Public Safety Learning Center, a division of NPSSG, offers world-class training and assessment services for private enterprise and state, local and county governments. NPSLC is specifically organized to conduct non-partisan research and management studies regarding the role and function of the branches and agencies of local, state, and federal government, and to support the development and enhancement of government, corporate and private enterprise effectiveness.

Other NPSSG Services

- ▶ Specialized training for the public and private sector
- ▶ Event Security Planning
- ▶ Civic security for vulnerable communities
- ▶ Executive Protection Consultation

Our executives have forged significant relationships with law enforcement and intelligence services around the world, enabling NPSSG to mobilize resources that are otherwise unavailable to the business community at large.

The NPSSG management team includes several of the world's most respected intelligence, counter-terrorism and law enforcement professionals. They are specialists who obtained their experience in organizations such as the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation and other prominent international law enforcement agencies. It is their unprecedented depth and breadth of knowledge — and singular understanding of security matters at all levels both public and private — that sets NPSSG apart from other security firms.
